

Strong links between communities and health facilities help ensure coordinated, integrated antenatal care.

Bridging the gap

“That feedback loop has really strengthened the facility community integration.”

“The CRF helps you to do the follow up ... it is another way of supervision and appreciation.”

“For the first time, referrals can move smoothly and electronically between the community and facility.”

FOR MORE INFO:

